Consent and License: By submitting your design to this contest you agree to allow the Office of Parent and Family Services (OPFS) to use your design, if chosen, for marketing and advertising, distribution, and sale of your design on physical products (aka T-shirts), and you agree to the following "Design Submission Terms and Conditions":

1. The design is your own original work and does not contain any trademarks, logos, copyrighted material, any other intellectual property belonging to any third party, or content subject to a third party's right of publicity or privacy.
2. The design does not infringe any rights (including but not limited to copyright) of any third party.
3. As between you and OPFS, you own and will maintain ownership of your design. OPFS does not and will not own the design because of your submission of the design.

The final design may need to be slightly adjusted to meet printing specifications.
